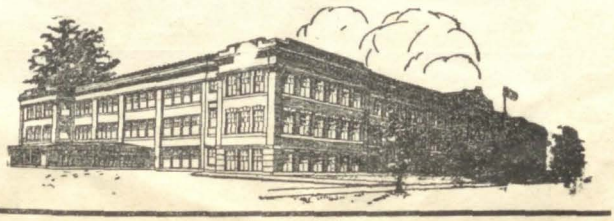
The First
All - Hammond High
Amateur Show



Friday Evening
April 14, 1939
8:00 P.M.

Hammond Civic Center

History of the Amateur Show

The three previous amateur shows were held in the High School Auditorium and were sponsored by the Hi-Y Club. The winning act of 1936 was a quintet composed of Ruth Church, Ann Iliff, and Jeanette Sillery. Wanda Maka won in 1937 with a classical favorite as her selection. Last year's winner was John Zengler with his ventriloquism and impersonations. This Year?

Mickey Isley's Orchestra

Today, the names of Mickey Isley and Madura's Danceland are synonomous. Mickey Isley, in his regular Tuesday night engagements at Danceland, has gone a long way the last year and a half. Danceland's Tuesdays have budded brightly since his Collegiate aggregation has invaded the "land o' dance," Both Danceland and Mickey Isley have been given the stamp of approval by the people of our locality. Danceland will celebrate its 10th anniversary Aug. 24th.
